

Course Program

Course Masters: Dr. Joel Dehasse, Dr. Diane Frank, Ass.Prof. Dr. Clara Palestriini

Monday, 7 September 2009

- Role of behavioural medicine in veterinary medicine.
- History taking for behavioural cases (behaviour sequence, postures, contexts, consequences)
- How to get useful information

|               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                      |
|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| 08.30 - 09.15 | Models used in Behavioural Medicine                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Dehasse              |
| 09.15 - 10.00 | The analysis of the behavioural sequence, postures, contexts, consequences and psychological elements                                                                                                                                | Palestrini           |
| 10.00 - 10.30 | Coffee Break                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                      |
| 10.30 - 12.30 | Observations vs interpretations; what distinguishes us from trainers (behavioural modification versus training); medical approach to behaviour, psychiatric illness; normal versus abnormal behaviour; CD and differential diagnoses | Palestrini,Frank |
| 12.30 - 13.30 | Lunch                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                      |
| 13.30 - 17.30 | Workshops                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                      |

Tuesday, 8 September 2009

- Treatment (behaviour modification; environmental enrichment and medication) and coaching

|               |                                                        |            |
|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 08.30 - 10.00 | Coaching and environmental enrichment and modification | Dehasse    |
| 10.00 - 10.30 | Coffee Break                                    |            |
| 10.30 - 11.45 | Behavioural modification                               | Frank      |
| 11.45 - 12.30 | Pharmacological treatment                              | Palestrini |
| 12.30 - 13.30 | Lunch                                           |            |
| 13.30 - 17.00 | Workshops                                              |            |
| 15.00 - 15.30 | Coffee Break                                    |            |
| 15.30 - 17.30 | Workshops                                              |            |

Wednesday, 9 September 2009

- Separation-related problems - theory around clinical cases

|               |                               |            |
|---------------|-------------------------------|------------|
| 08.30 - 10.00 | Emotions, moods and disorders | Dehasse    |
| 10.00 - 10.30 | Coffee Break           |            |
| 10.30 - 11.30 | Importance of films           | Frank      |
| 11.30 - 12.30 | Research Results              | Palestrini |
| 12.30 - 13.30 | Lunch                  |            |
| 13.30 - 17.30 | Workshops                     |            |

Thursday, 10 September 2009

- Aggression in dogs and cats - theory around clinical cases

|               |                                                      |            |
|---------------|------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 08.30 - 09.30 | Classification, evaluation, dangerousness assessment | Dehasse    |
| 09.30 - 10.00 | Cat aggression to people                             | Frank      |
| 10.00 - 10.30 | Coffee Break                                  |            |
| 10.30 - 12.30 | Dog Aggression                                       | Palestrini |
| 12.30 - 13.30 | Lunch                                         |            |
| 15.30 - 17.30 | Workshops                                            |            |

Friday, 11 September 2009

- House soiling and other disorders in cats - theory around clinical cases

|               |                                     |            |
|---------------|-------------------------------------|------------|
| 08.30 - 09.15 | Environmental enrichment            | Dehasse    |
| 09.15 - 10.00 | Inter-cat aggression; house-soiling | Frank      |
| 10.00 - 10.30 | Coffee Break                 |            |
| 10.30 - 12.30 | Urine marking; feline hyperesthesia | Palestrini |
| 12.30 - 13.30 | Lunch                        |            |
| 13.30 - 17.00 | Workshops                           |            |